Pope Francis, October 27, 2013

Mother, Teacher, Family:

The Nature and Role of the Church

The Church has institutional forms because she must work in the world. But that does not exhaust her essence. The Church is the Bride of Christ, a "she," not an "it." In the words of Saint John XXIII, she is our mother and teacher, our comforter and guide, our family of faith. Even when her people and leaders sin, we still need the Church's wisdom, Sacraments, support and proclamation of the truth, because she is the body of Jesus himself in the world; the family of God's people writ large.

Traveling? Need to find a church?

Masstimes.org lists the Mass schedule, confessions schedule, languages, address and telephone number for every church in the U.S. (and many other nations). The service is sponsored by the Daughters of St. Paul (who run a nationwide network of religious bookstores), in partnership with the Catholic Communication Campaign of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Good Deed Friday ~ When you do a good deed for someone, it encourages others to also do a good deed. Has someone done a random act of kindness for you? Have you done a good deed for someone else? Tell us about it and we will post it on the Saint Joseph Facebook page every Friday. You can send it anonymously, if you like. No deed is too small to be recognized! Let's pass it along and make someone's day! Email your good deed to dquaqlia@stjoesmendham.org.

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Not a Sacrament for the dying only!

Please call the Parish House to inform one of our priests that a family member needs the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick before the person becomes gravely ill. This sacrament may be repeated. It is also appropriate to receive this sacrament prior to surgery. "If circumstances suggest it, the celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick can be preceded by the Sacrament of Penance." (1140, The Catechism of the Catholic Church).

Diocese of Paterson

You Did It For Me ~ After being abandoned by her husband, a mother and her children were living on the streets, struggling to make ends meet and provide food for the family. She came to Catholic Charities for assistance, not knowing where else to find food. The food services she received stabilized her family's situation and helped her realize the job training resources available to help her get back on track. "I wouldn't have a full-time job if it weren't for Catholic Charities," she said. "I am so grateful." For more information about the hope-giving work being done across America, please visit www.CatholicCharitiesUSA.org.

Parishioners, please note: On our Diocesan website, www.patersondiocese.org, there is the Advance Directive for End of Life Issues available for printing. This directive has been approved by the Bishops of New Jersey.
