FOCUS: Every good thing that happens to us provides a glimpse into the joy that will be ours in heaven. When good things happen to us, we get an idea of what the kingdom of heaven is like: it is always time for celebration. Happily, we do not have to wait until we die to join the celebration. For by placing our faith in Jesus and living according to his teachings, we can experience the blessings of the kingdom of God amidst our lives on earth.

Traveling? Need to find a church?
Masstimes.org lists the Mass schedule, confessions schedule, languages, address and telephone number for every church in the U.S. (and many other nations). The service is sponsored by the Daughters of St. Paul (who run a nationwide network of religious bookstores), in partnership with the Catholic Communication Campaign of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Online Giving ~ As you prepare for vacation, we offer you an option to support our parish through Online Giving. In lieu of weekly collections, the Online Giving program will collect monthly contributions from your checking, savings or credit card account. There is no cost to you to participate in the program. If you choose to participate, this will replace your weekly envelopes and you will no longer have to write a check every week or be concerned about catching up on missed offertory donations. Enrollment is easy. Contact the Parish House for more information. Your support in this effort is greatly appreciated!

For the safety of your children ~ We ask that parents accompany young children when they use the bathroom during Mass.

Good Deed Friday ~ We'd like to hear about your good deeds and we will post them on the Saint Joseph Facebook page every Friday. You are free to be anonymous, as a good deed is its own reward! Email your good deed to dquaaglia@stjoesmendham.org.

Thank you to our Advertisers! We thank all those who support our bulletin through their advertisements. We ask that you do your best to support them.

"If circumstances suggest it, the celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick can be preceded by the Sacrament of Penance." (1140, The Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Human Concerns

The weekend of August 19 ~20 we will once again collect items for Family Promise of Morris County, Inc. Family Promise of Morris County, Inc. is a non-sectarian, not-for-profit organization dedicated to ending the crisis of homelessness faced by Morris County families, by partnering with other public and private agencies, religious congregations and community volunteers to provide shelter, case management and mentoring services leading to self-sufficiency. Family Promise currently partners with more than 75 congregations of different faiths and 1600 of their congregants to provide shelter, overnight staffing, dinner and breakfast to our families. Family Promise of Morris County maintains a Day Center and Office in Parsippany. The dedication and commitment of all these partners makes Family Promise of Morris County the most cost-effective local shelter program in the community. The volunteers and their families open their congregations, their schedules, their wallets, and their hearts to the families of Family Promise of Morris County. In addition, they allow the families to stay for as long as they need to get back on their feet. For some families, it may be a couple of weeks; for others, it may be a year. Many traditional shelters have a time limit which means families often have to find other temporary shelter before they have accumulated enough resources or completed necessary schooling to enable them to successfully move on to independent housing.

How we can help: Keep an eye out for The Family Promise Wish List which will be in next week's bulletin. On the weekend of August 19 ~ 20 there will be baskets in the Narthex to collect the items. Thank you for your help!! Any questions please call Mary Creamer 973-229-4828; marycreamer@gmail.com or Barbara Nutt, 973-543-2444; banutt@msn.com.

Please note: St. Joseph Church no longer collects clothing donations. We will continue to collect nonperishable food items. If you have other items to donate to the Father English Center, please call Adi Conover at 973-543-0248.

Please continue to help stock the shelves at Bob and Carol's Food Pantry at the Father English Center in Paterson. The pantry is in serious need of the following items: rice, canned soups, canned beans, pasta, and pasta sauces. Place your donations in the bin at the west entrance ONLY. If you have any questions regarding this request, please call Emily Wood, 973-543-3445. Thank you!
