The Knights of Columbus Introduce "Building the Domestic Church While Strengthening Our Parish" ~ Please feel free to visit and take home pamphlets from the Building the Domestic Church While Strengthening Our Parish kiosk near the church narthex, which has been provided to the parish by the St. Joseph's Parish Knights of Columbus Council. Joe and the Spiritual Life Committee, the local Knights of Columbus Council has offered to provide and maintain the kiosk with the pamphlets published by the Knights of Columbus' sponsored Catholic Information Service. The pamphlets address a wide variety of themes and topics (such as family life, prayer, and faith) with practical ideas for practicing the faith and ideas for parish group activities. The Building the Domestic Church initiative seeks to support Christian family life by promoting a fuller integration of the sacramental and social life of the parish and encouraging parish families to become more fully formed in their Catholic faith.
